WRITING

If somebody asked me about the first thing that comes to my mind when we speak about nature wonders, I would say "an apple".

orgs So what is the perfect apple like?

Firstly, when it comes to food, the most important thing is taste. It is a sour, unripe apple. Despite its sourness, that ~~is~~ people find disgusting, in the end you can feel little sweetness and this taste contrast is amazing. When you touch it, you understand that it is cold, smooth but with some scratches. Unripe apples are very hard, so you can not squeeze them.

Moreover, this apple smells amazing great. When you breathe in its smell, you feel freshness. Eating it, you enjoy delicious sound of crunch. Also, when you look at it, you admire its bright green colour and little spots.

To sum up, green apples are amazing, and they are the best objects ever created.
