WRITING

Hello Everyone!

You are reading Kate's blog.

Today I want to tell you about my native town. That's because it had birthday yesterday and I forgot about it!

The town where I was born is Tula. It is situated not far from Moscow.

Tula is the capital of weapons and gingerbreads. That's why there are many museums and exhibitions connected with them. ~~There~~

You also can visit Tula Kremlin and the central park. ~~when you visit~~ They <sup>attract lots of tourists</sup> are ~~the main~~ tourists' attractions.

Now it's time for interesting facts!

1. Tula was founded in 1146 - a year earlier than Moscow was!

2. Many years ago there was <sup>baked</sup> the biggest gingerbread was baked there.

3. Leo Tolstoy, a famous ~~russian~~ writer, spent his life in his estate in Tula.

In My town

In conclusion I want to say that my town is worth visiting: the people here are nice and the history of Tula is satisfying to learn about.

Now I would like to ask you about your native places in Russia. What interesting facts could you tell us ~~also~~ do you know? Tell me in the comments.

And what can you tell about your native places? I'm curious I'm curious to know.
